

Registration Information for 2017 IYAS and IRAS Trainings for Initial Certification Only

Please review all of the information before registering for a training session.

Overview and Eligibility Information

- These courses are for individuals who need to gain initial certification in IYAS or IRAS. These courses are not for recertification. Please look for other opportunities from IOCS for recertification.
- The IYAS training courses are designed for individuals who supervise youth and are required to be certified users of the IYAS.
- The IRAS training courses are designed for individual who supervise adult offenders and are required to be certified users of the IRAS.
- Eligible participants include: court-appointed probation officers, community correction officers, Court Alcohol & Drug program professional staff, Problem-Solving Court intake staff/case managers/coordinators, and parole agents.

Training and Registration Information

Training/Certification information:

- All trainings will be held at 30 South Meridian Street, Indianapolis, IN 46204.
- Training consists of two full days (Day 1 begins at 9 a.m.; Day 2 begins at 8:30 a.m.)
- All participants must be on time for both training days.
- All participants must successfully complete the training course and pass the certification test in order to use the IRAS/IYAS instruments and be granted access to the INcite application.
- Successfully completing the training course means full attendance and participation in course sessions and exercises.
- Course sessions and exercises are designed to provide participants with knowledge and understanding needed to properly score the assessment instruments.
- Certification test will be given in the afternoon of Day 2.
- Examination scores are kept confidential and if the participant fails the examination then the participant will be informed of the criteria they missed.
- Please review the complete User Certification Policy adopted by the Board of Directors of the Judicial Conference and the Department of Correction, which is found at: <http://www.in.gov/judiciary/probation/files/prob-risk-iyas-iras-user-certification-2011.pdf>.

Logistical information:

- Lunch will be provided for both training days since the schedule for each training session varies. Please be sure to plan on eating with us both days.
- IOCS will not cover any mileage, parking, or other participant expenses.

Registration information:

- Each training has limited space and is available on a first-come basis.
- Registration deadline is one week prior to the start of each course. After reviewing all course registrations, IOCS will evaluate if there are enough participants to run a particular course. If a course does not have enough participants, IOCS will contact each registrant to direct them to other available options.
- No walk-ins will be permitted
- Registrations are being accepted electronically and each participant should register only one time. If you need to make any changes after submitting your registration form, or if you have questions, please contact:
 - IRAS - Teri Simmons at the IOCS, by telephone at (317) 232-1313 or by email at teri.simmons@courts.in.gov
 - IYAS - Emily Melloh at the IOCS, by telephone at (317) 232-1313 or by email at Emily.melloh@courts.in.gov
- When a training course is full, the link to register for that particular course will not work. If this occurs, please register for a different training course.
- Confirmation notices and additional correspondence will automatically be sent to the email address provided on the registration form.
- Participants who require special testing accommodations must submit a written accommodation request in advance along with information to assist us in reviewing the request. Such requests can be sent to Michelle Goodman at the IOCS, by fax at (317) 233-3367 or by email at Michelle.Goodman@courts.in.gov.
